'the unrighteous'-Now it wasn't that the courts in Corinth were "corrupt" (or more corrupt than any other). For even Paul himself, had found justice before the courts in Corinth. (Acts 18:12-16) And Paul isn't forbidding all use of the courts. After all, we are commanded to obey the laws of the land (Rom 13:1-14), and obeying certain laws demands that we use the court system, i.e. marriage licenses, adoptions, jury duty, etc..

But Paul is dealing with disputes between brethren (6:5) Current Christendom knocks the door of unrighteous for their own partner issues! 1Pet 3:4,7 (Do you think – your prayers are heard w/o you reconcile the disputes? Mt.5:24, Js 3:16, 5:16) The apostle is not so much depreciating the justice of the Gentile courts as he is emphasizing the different standards of authority employed by

New International Version
Therefore, if you have disputes about such matters, do you ask for a ruling from those whose way of life is scorned in the church?

New Living Translation
If you have legal disputes about such matters, why go to outside judges who are not respected by the church?

English Standard Version
So if you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who have no standing in the church?

King James Bible
If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

Christian Standard Bible
So if you have such matters, do you appoint as your judges those who have no standing in the church?

International Standard Version
So if you have cases dealing with this life, why do you appoint as judges people who have no standing in the church?
